LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY!

SESSION OF 1876.

REGULAR DAY, Monday, August 28.
Assembly now in session. Vice-President L. Ahole in chair.

The majority of the select committee to whom was referred the bill to regulate the sale of opium, reported that the bill be laid on the table. Laid on table all bills waiting for their second reading should be taken up to-morrow until disposed of.

Mr. Kalauau moved an amendment that all the bills be read according to their order under the rule Carried.

Hon. S. K. Kaai retracted all bad language which he used toward the Attorney General during the debate on Saturday last.

ORDER OF THE DAY.

The bill to increase the number of auction licenses was then read a second time and passed to engagement with a slight amendment, to be read a second time on Monday next.

The select committee to whom was referred the bill giving some privileges to soldiers in standing army, reported that the bill be passed to engagement.

The select committee to whom was referred the bill to prevent certain birds reported that the bill be passed to engagement with some amendments which the committee recommended. Adopted.

Hon. S. K. Kaai spoke of the personalities which entered during the debate on Saturday last between himself and the Attorney General, when he called him a liar, and said, he would not apologize for the language he used.

Hon. E. A. Atchison moved that the Select Committee be requested to write out all that the Hon. Kaai said, so he should abide to the matter again.

Mr. Nakasho then presented a resolution that the Assembly General of the Kingdom be requested, first and, without the language he used last Saturday, calling the members who voted on the resolution giving such representation one hundred dollars "theirs".

Then the President of the Assembly was asked if he would like to speak; third, that the reporters of the newspapers be forbidden to publish what had occurred in the debate during the debate of last Saturday.

Silently postponed.

Mr. Nakasho presented a resolution that the Minister of the Treasury be asked if they still prefer it to release to pay $100 to each representative, which was agreed to and passed.

Mr. Nakasho presented a resolution that the Secretary be requested to draw from the Public Treasury the sum of $10,000, and pay to each representative $100 a piece.

No bill was voted.

Then Mr. Kaai took the floor and made a long speech till the house adjourned at 12 m.
